

SEND A SECRET MESSAGE

The Sons of Liberty often had to send secret messages to each other about where resources and weapons were hid so that the British would not find out. In this activity, you will send and receive secret messages!

Directions:

With your partner, come up with a code for each letter below. Then, hide the object somewhere in the classroom and write a secret message to your partner for them to find it!

Switch roles and do it again!

Bonus: Take another group's secret message and try to figure out what it says!
